

Ascom UK and the Wandsworth Group Announce Distribution Agreement

Ascom Wireless Solutions and the Wandsworth Group announced today the signing of a Distribution Agreement that will see Ascom's range of healthcare oriented Paging, IP DECT and WiFi communication products, offered along side Wandsworth's own Nurse Call and Bedside Computing systems.

Ascom is a market leader in professional wireless messaging and lone worker solutions, while Wandsworth boasts a relationship with the NHS that goes back over 50 years. Both companies are fully committed to the development of IP based products and will work towards a truly converged solution to the benefit of the client.

In a joint statement John Burns the MD of Ascom, and Richard Mockett Wandsworth's MD, observed...

' This agreement is a natural fit for both Companies. The combined expertise and product mix represents a powerful offering that brings 21st Century solutions to the healthcare market in the UK. Together we will be able to deliver better functionality and better integration of communication services combined with a demonstrable ROI, all vital factors in today's competitive environment'.
